

I pay for XM and seek services like XM Instant Traffic & Weather when I'm on the road. It's not my fault that the NAB's representatives feel behind the times with analog technology and can't deliver a competitive product. Leave XM alone and let the free market decide who wins.